

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today our gospel talks about faith. His apostles request Him: "Increase our faith." And Jesus answered: "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you."

A mustard seed is the smallest seed of all and only 3-4 meters long when it grows up. Sycamore is the hardest wood and it lasts for 600 years. Jesus uses this image to show the kind of faith He wants from us.

This passage talks about our attitude towards our faith. This attitude has to be acted upon as stated in the second part of the gospel – the parable of the mere servant that presents our active faith in God. In other words, this gospel talks about our attitude towards our faith and our active faith in God.

What are the attitudes of a Christian towards his/her faith in God? Does it mean going to Mass every Sunday? Does it mean praying or having statues of the Blessed Virgin Mary and other saints in our house? Does it mean sharing one faith, one baptism and one Lord? Does it mean knowing the Apostles' Creed, believing the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist and believing too in the Trinitarian God? Yes, but more than these. A Christian should not be known only by his/her attitude towards his/her faith but most especially on how he/she acts upon this faith through loving.

You know, sometimes, it is easy to be faithful and loving to God and to others when everything is going well for us just as it is easy to be loving and kind, to be pleasant and nice to people. But we make so many excuses and we don't want to perform our responsibilities as believing Christians. We don't want to pray because we don't have enough time and faith. We can't be charitable because we're still selfish. We can't leave our sins and vices because we are still weak. It is because, we say, "We're just human beings, sinful". This faith of ours is a weak faith and has no self-confidence, because for me faith means also trust.

OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

The feast, Our Lady of the Rosary highlights the intercessory power of Mary, who prays to her Jesus for us her spiritual sons and daughters those in danger or in need.

According to tradition, the Blessed Mother gave 15 promises to St. Dominic and Blessed Alan de la Roche. Rosary leads us to a deepening of Faith, Hope, and Charity. It is, as many saints have testified, the door of the faithful to a deeper prayer life and a deeper union with God. The prayer of the Hail Mary is rooted in Scripture but is also a response of the Church to the mystery of the Incarnation and the Redemption and the role of Our Lord's Blessed Mother in it (cf. John 2:3). In Luke 1:28, St. Gabriel greets Mary with the words, "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you!" In Luke 1:42, St. Elizabeth says these words to Mary: "Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb!"

DIOCESAN VOCATIONS MONTH OCTOBER 2025

Bishop Crosby has designated October as Diocesan Vocations Month. Each Sunday your parish will pray for vocations during Mass. You are also asked to pray for vocations throughout the month. If you know someone you think should consider a particular vocation, such as marriage, priesthood, consecrated life (religious life or consecrated virginity lived in the world) or the permanent diaconate, be sure to tell that person. For more information about praying for vocations,
